

The Josh Brown & Adam Wainwright

CELEBRITY SHOOT

Register now to be one of the lucky shooters to compete in this authentic sporting clay experience. Shooter's will enjoy multiple shots from various stations, with a different professional athlete competing with (or against) you at each station.

Join Josh and Adam along with other NFL and MLB stars as they partner together to benefit coaches in St. Louis and across the Midwest. Coaches Time Out exists to support, equip, and challenge coaches to live on and off the field in an intentional, character driven manner, influencing lives as well as games. CTO does this by providing leadership conferences and small groups for coaches and spouses seeking to raise the bar in their relationships, finances, and vocation.
